

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Ted Breidenbach, and we are richer because Ted lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Ted was born on June 1, 1906, in Reynolds, North Dakota, to Anton and Elizabeth Breidenbach; and,

Whereas, Ted married Elizabeth Ackerman on November 6, 1926, and to this union 4 sons were born: Francis, Joseph, Mike and Steve, who in turn blessed them with 10 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Ted resides in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and will observe his 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as his friends and relatives gather to honor him and celebrate his life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 1, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join all his friends and his relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
